Various patterns are integrated into the design: vertical black lines of varying lengths are on a pink shape in the top left; solid black dots are on a pink shape in the top right and a yellow shape in the middle right; small open circles are on a pink shape in the middle right and an orange shape in the bottom right; and small open circles with black outlines are on an orange shape in the bottom right. In the bottom left, there are stylized black line drawings of leaves or petals. The central text is rendered in a bold, black, hand-drawn font.
